

DeAnna Golsan Bio

DeAnna grew up Methodist, serving at Christ United Methodist in Farmers Branch as an usher, Stephen Minister and Stephen Ministry Leader. After leaving that church for personal reasons, she remained in church limbo for several years. In 2008, she was invited by a friend to visit Midway Hills Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and her life changed. She joined the church two Sunday's later. Within 6 months she received her call to Ministry and began Brite Divinity School in August of 2009, graduating with her Master of Divinity degree in December of 2013. Through the Grace of God she was Ordained in February of 2014 at Midway Hills Christian Church with her family at Disciples Christian Church by her side.

DeAnna lives in Plano now, with Cory, her husband of 32 years, and remains close with her three grown sons, and her almost perfect grandson Mason. She serves with joy and gratitude the congregation of Disciples Christian Church in Plano, TX.
