Prayers...

Hello everyone, below is a list of prayer concerns. Please hold everyone in your prayers as possible. Also, a reminder that if you have a prayer request you may text me at 214-597-4543 until about 10:40 on Sunday morning to have it included.

Joy S. continues to lift her sister Libby and new baby Isaiah. Isaiah is having a bit of an issue with brain bleeds. Please pray that he is okay and that both can return home safely and soon. Joy also lifts her other sister who is a E.R. doctor and is in daily contact with the virus.

Claudia and Doug C. ask for continued prayers for their nephew Dan at home recuperating from a bout of Covid 19. He is making improvements. Also for their niece Gina who was taken via ambulance with Covid 19. She is a nurse at a hospital. Prayers for healing for both.

Continued prayers for all of our health care workers. They are tired and are having to deal with this virus in a way that none of us have to. They are seeing the overcrowding, the death and the pain of families unable to be with their loved ones at the end. This is hard on the body, the mind and most of all, on the spirit.

Please pray for all of our high school seniors. They are finding ways to have Prom and Graduation in ways never done. Let the class of 2020 be the only ones that go through this. Prayers of thanksgiving and celebration.

Please continue to hold this church in your prayers. We are in the midst of being church in ways we never have before. Please continue to support the church with your prayers, your presence (online), your gifts and your service (as socially safe).

“Adversity”

Though you may be hard pressed on every side, you need not be crushed by your difficulties. You are not alone in your battles because I will never, ever abandon you. Even if you are struck down by a fatal blow, you will not be destroyed. I am the Shepherd and Guardian of your soul – the part of you that is indestructible. I give you eternal Life, and you will never perish. No one can snatch you out of My hand!

BE UPLIFTED

From “Jesus Lives” by Lucinda Secrest McDowell

July 5th is the Sunday that we would normally recognize Independence Day. We might have some patriotic music, a brief recognition that this is an important day. What do you think about that being the day that we hold our first church? Would you be comfortable coming? New things will be put in motion and there will be some changes, but I would like to start getting feed back from you as to whether/or when you would be comfortable coming back. What do you think? July 5th sound good? Freedom to worship? Let me know.

Plano Food Pantry needs for the month of May

Have you been to a grocery store lately? It is a bit different than what we are used to. Shelves are empty and simple things like pasta, meat, bread, lunch meat, produce is hard to come by. As hard as it is for us, it is even harder for some who are limited to what they can get by loss of jobs, WIC, long shifts or simply not enough money. That is where food pantries come in. They offer food and comfort when that is sometimes hard to come by. Right now the Plano Food Pantry needs you, but differently than normal.

Each month we let you know of a certain type of item that is needed and you fill out wagons to overflowing. This month, and probably next month we will not be doing that. We are not going to ask you to go to the grocery store to stock up on something that might not be available and expose yourself to this virus. But you can still help.

Please, support the Plano Food Pantry through a cash/check donation. You can make that check payable to the church (and put Plano Food Pantry in the memo line) or to Plano Food Pantry. Mail it in (or drop off in the mail box) and we will make sure that that donation gets to where it needs to. One nice thing about this is that it allows the food pantry to buy in bulk just what is needed.

Thank you for your continued support.

In order to follow Jesus and worship God: We will live and tell the good news of Jesus Christ in all we do; we will serve our neighbors; and we will minister to our fellow Christians.
