Breath on me Breath of God!

April 11, 2021

Psalm 133, John 20:19-23

I look forward to worshipping with you!

Lord Hear Our Prayer...

- Nancy B. asks for renewed prayers for Kathleen who has struggled for so long with cancer. May God give her strength.
- For Sandy S. at home and recovering from surgery.
- Patti celebrates that her cousin Sandy's surgery went well and healing is happening.
- Joanne K. asks for prayers for a coworker, Annie P. who had a brain aneurism.
- Rebecca asks for prayers of safety and strength for her grandson Taylor entering the Army.
- David asks for prayers for his wife Erin who is on a ventilator in McKinney with Covid.

*"Pile your troubles on GOD'S shoulders – he'll carry your load."
Psalm 55:22, The Message*

I wonder, how many burdens is Jesus carrying for us that we know nothing about? We're aware of some. He carries our sin. He carries our shame. He carries our eternal debt. But are there others? Has He lifted fears before we felt them? ... Those times when we have been surprised by our own sense of peace? Could it be that Jesus has lifted our anxiety onto His shoulders and placed a yoke of kindness on ours?

BE UPLIFTED

From "Everyday Blessings" by Max Lucado

EASTER!

Oh! How wonderful was it to see so many people in our sanctuary?! Not just visitors, and not just guests coming to hear some really great singing, but to see friends that we have not seen in so long! For each of our family members who came, I pray you felt wanted, welcomed and above all, safe.

The energy in the sanctuary was strong, and I hope you felt the presence of God as we celebrated the resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Listening to Jessica sing “Holy City” (and yes, I will always hear Walt singing that also) brought tears to the eyes of many, just like Ty singing “The Traveler” brought smiles and tapping feet.

Easter does not end simply because the day is over however. We continue to journey with Christ, to learn, to grow and to strive to be Christ-like in our behaviors towards others. Easter simply reminds us that it is possible to give everything to others and become even more than we were.

Thank you all for journeying with me. I pray that the stories you have heard have touched you and lifted you. May the journey continue!

Take me out to the Ballgame!

It is once again time to go and catch the Rough Riders in action as they take on the Corpus Christi Hooks on May 16th. With the exception of last year, we have attended about 5 of these games as a group and had a wonderful time. Rebecca does a great job of making sure we have exceptional seats and this year will be no different. Please let her know as soon as possible if you will be attending.

When: May 16th at 4:05 pm

Where: Rough Rider Stadium in Frisco

Cost: $22.50 per person

Includes: Entry, Excellent seats, Souvenir, Food and a really great time!

Hope to see you there.

Food Pantry

For the month of April, please bring small bottles of liquid dish soap and/or small bottles of cooking oil. Thank you.

Anticipation!!!
